Where water is a way of life.

Imagine golden mornings by Lake Michigan, soft breezes, and the sound of waves setting the rhythm for laidback afternoons. That's what you'll find on every one of South Haven's ten public beaches, where every moment feels like summer and every sunset marks the perfect close to another carefree day.

Live like a local

South Haven's famed "blue stairs" are located at the southernmost part of South Beach and lead to the popular Kids Corner Park at the top.

Find peace
at the pier.

South Haven's iconic South Pier Lighthouse has stood tall for over 150 years—a guiding light and a symbol of our serene lakeside escape. Stroll out at sunset for an unforgettable view and some of the most stunning photos you'll capture in South Haven.

Find serenity up and down
the shoreline.

In South Haven, water is more than just a backdrop. It's the heart of this place, and you feel its calming presence whether you're strolling the shoreline, floating in the marina, or catching glimpses from downtown.

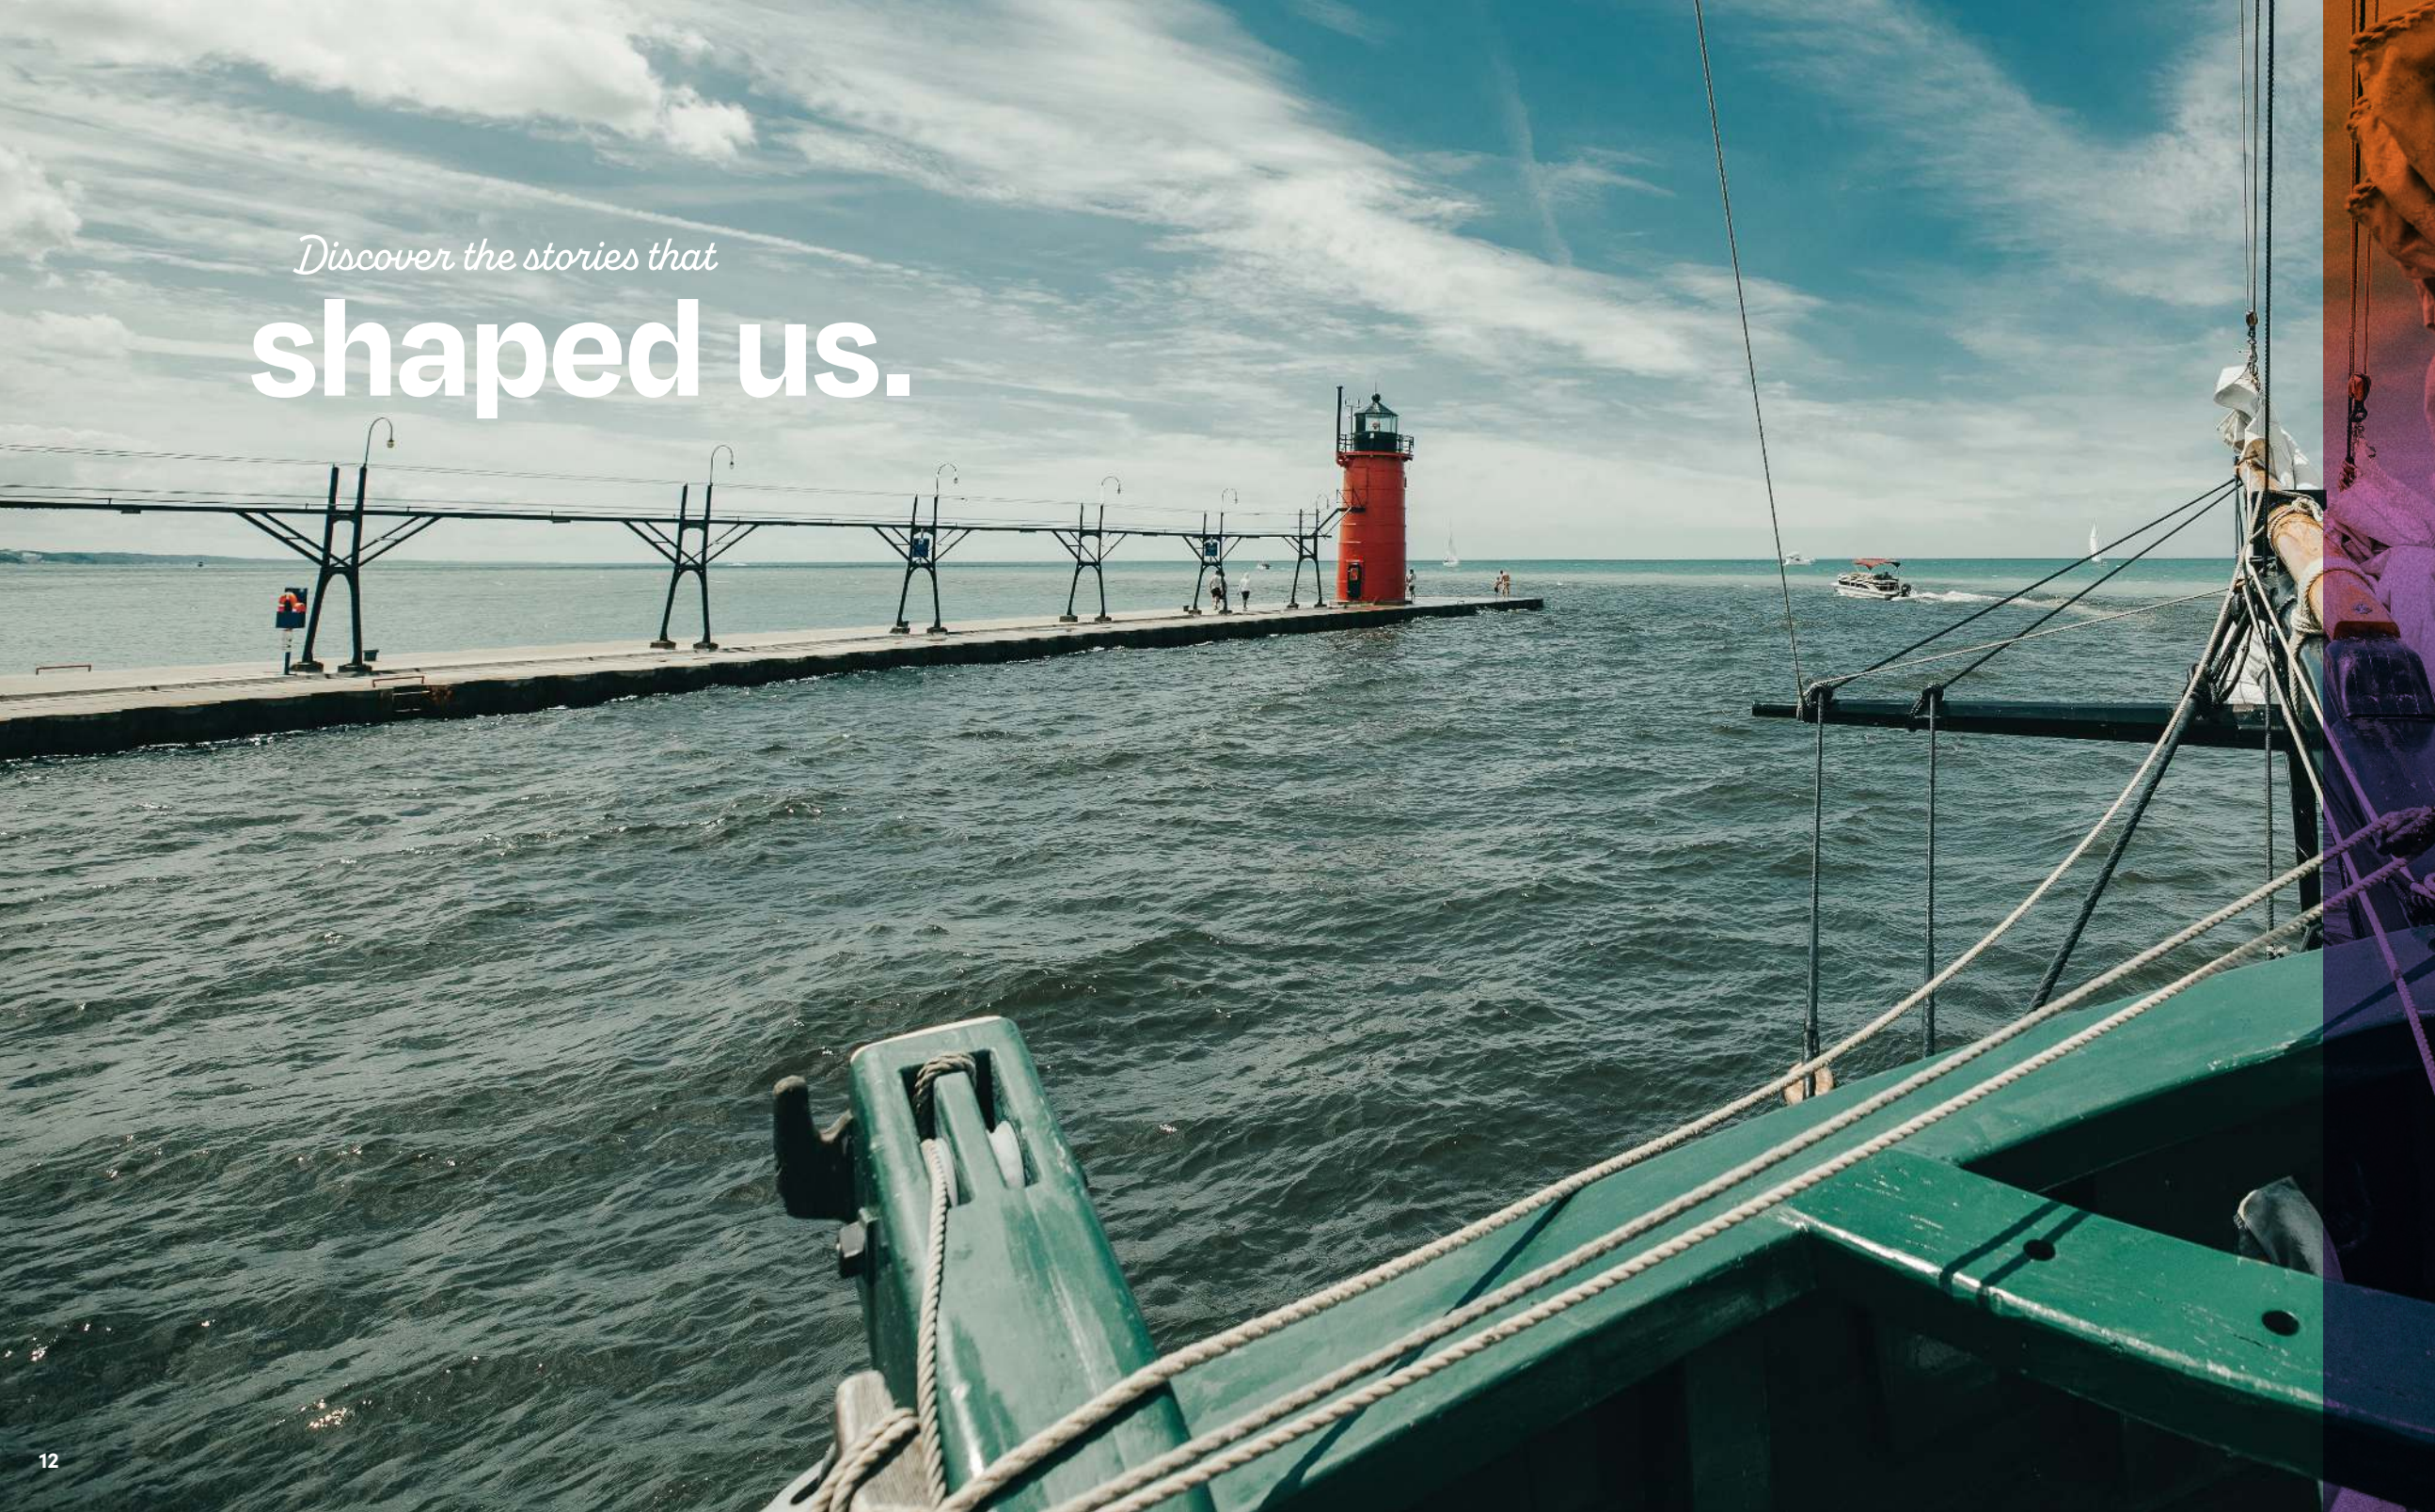

For boaters, the North and South Marinas offer transient and seasonal slips. Non-boaters can enjoy up-close views of the harbor and signs touching on the area's history while strolling through the Maritime District Harborwalk. And everyone can take part in the food and festivities at the Idler Riverboat or Admiral Jack's, located right on the water.

Looking for romance

Riverfront Park is an excellent spot to watch the sunset.

Discover the stories that shaped us.

Michigan Maritime Museum serves as the anchor of South Haven's Maritime District.

The museum preserves Michigan's Great Lakes maritime heritage, and serves as a center for education, research, and enrichment. Highlights include on-water experiences aboard a licensed fleet of authentic period vessels.

The South Haven Center for the Arts invites you to view their free ever-changing exhibits, and maybe even participate in an art class throughout their open season. They host the annual South Haven Art Fair in July as well as the Mistletoe Market in November and December.

The Bailey Museum and Gardens is a national historic site and showcases the work of the father of modern horticulture, South Haven native, Dr. Liberty Hyde Bailey Jr. (1858-1954). Bailey's birth site includes the original 1857 home and carriage house. Sit in the shade of the old black walnut tree to enjoy a lecture and wander through wildflower trails.

Blue Coast Artists unite to form a tour of Southwest Michigan's rural landscape while learning about individual artistic styles in a variety of media. Each studio is unique and offers a glimpse of a working artist's creative process. Every fall, they host a tour of the seven studios between South Haven and Saugatuck.

Michigan Flywheelers Museum is home to antique tractors and artifacts that bring Van Buren County's agriculture history to life. The annual Farm History Day and Antique Engine and Tractor Show salute rural traditions with working displays and fun events. June's Swap Meet and Flea Market preserves the art of blacksmithing with live demonstrations.

Historical Association of South Haven (HASH) has preserved South Haven's history by collecting and preserving archives of the area. Hash is located in the historic (former) Hartman School and just opened a secondary location downtown South Haven in the (former) Forest House, South Haven's very first hotel built in 1853.

The Mitten Children's Museum is a non-profit children's museum featuring Michigan-themed, play-based exhibits and activities for children of all ages and abilities, serving as a safe, engaging place for kids and their families to explore, learn, and make lifelong memories together all year long.

Visit our neighboring towns.

Once you're in South Haven, you may never want to leave. But if you're up for a short adventure, Paw Paw is just 29 miles away. Nestled in the heart of Van Buren County's wine country, it offers charming downtown streets lined with quaint shops, local restaurants, and tasting rooms pouring small-batch wines and craft brews.

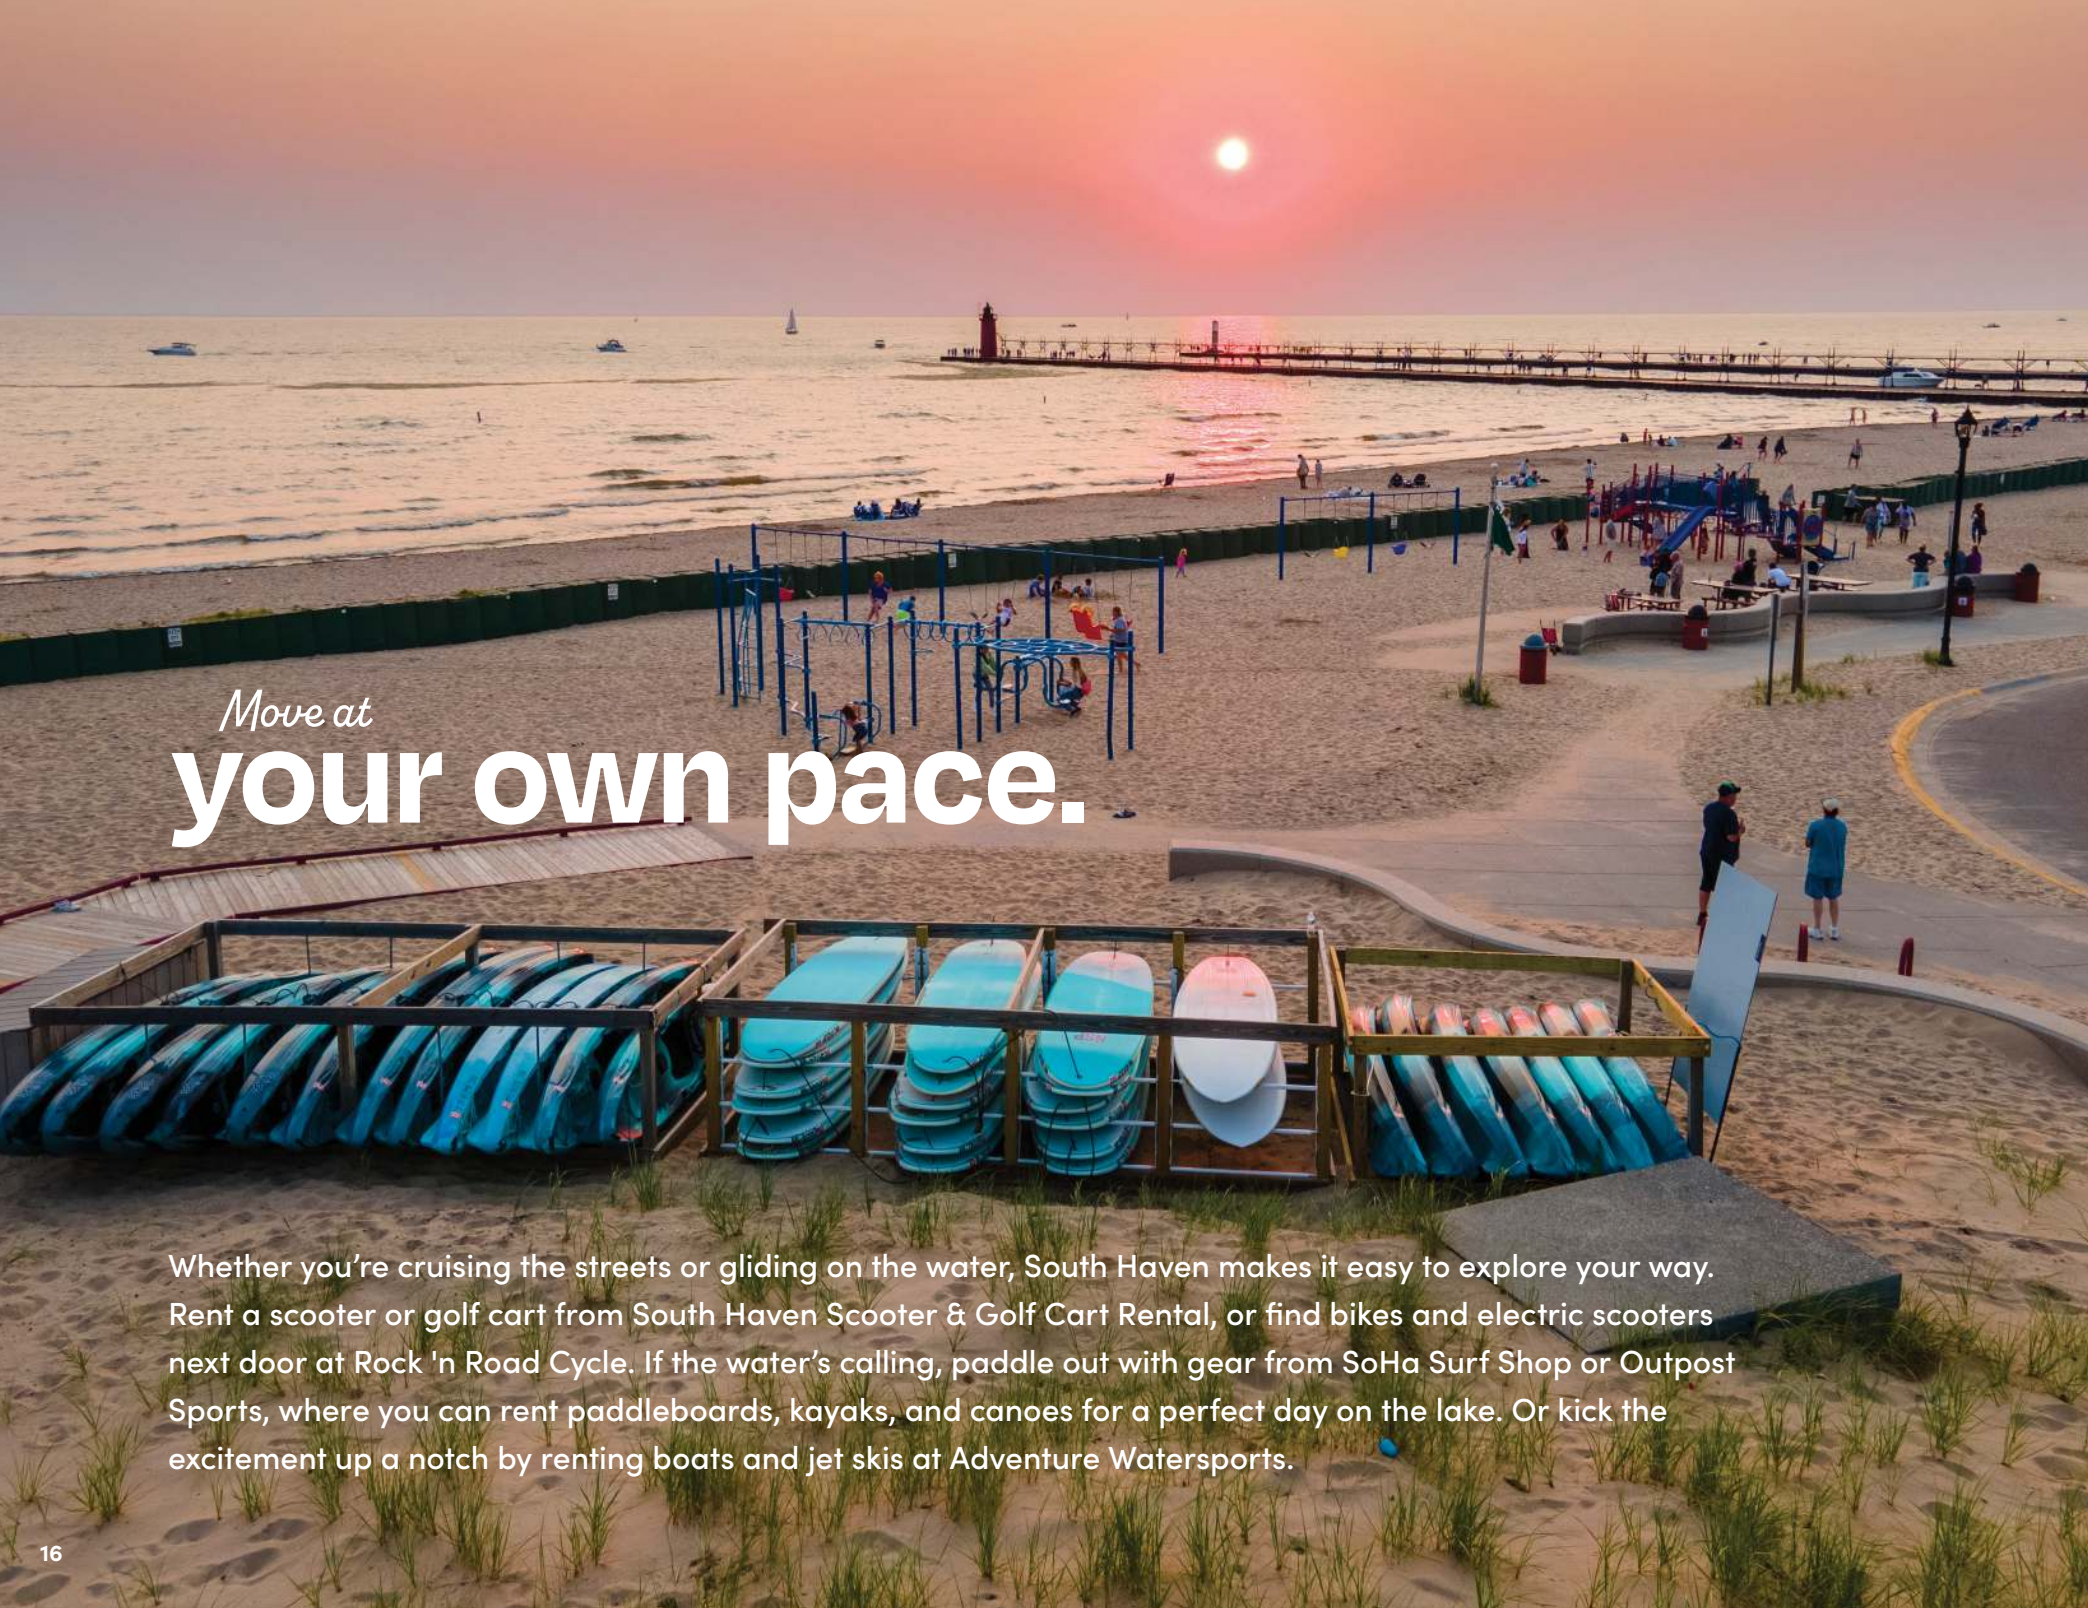

If you love live music, you're in for a treat. Paw Paw has a thriving music scene, with the amphitheater at Warner Vineyards hosting unforgettable concerts in a stunning riverside setting.

Beyond Paw Paw, there's plenty more to explore. Ride vintage wheels at the Gilmore Car Museum, take off on an aviation adventure at the Air Zoo in Kalamazoo, or follow the Lake Michigan Shore Wine Trail. Looking for a quieter escape? The region's inland lakes and parks offer the perfect place to unwind.

Amenities

Move at your own pace.

Whether you're cruising the streets or gliding on the water, South Haven makes it easy to explore your way. Rent a scooter or golf cart from South Haven Scooter & Golf Cart Rental, or find bikes and electric scooters next door at Rock 'n Road Cycle. If the water's calling, paddle out with gear from SoHa Surf Shop or Outpost Sports, where you can rent paddleboards, kayaks, and canoes for a perfect day on the lake. Or kick the excitement up a notch by renting boats and jet skis at Adventure Watersports.

Did you know

Golf carts are permitted on certain city streets and are a very popular choice for visitors.

Find Your Rental

Cast away

your worries.

Set out on Lake Michigan with one of South Haven's expert fishing charter captains for an unforgettable day on the water. Feel the thrill as your reel spins, bringing in king salmon, trout, perch, bass, steelhead, and more.

Prefer a quieter cast? Inland fishing offers just as many possibilities. Drop a line from the pier, find solitude at Black River Park, or explore Van Buren County's scenic inland lakes.

Effortless Clean-Up.

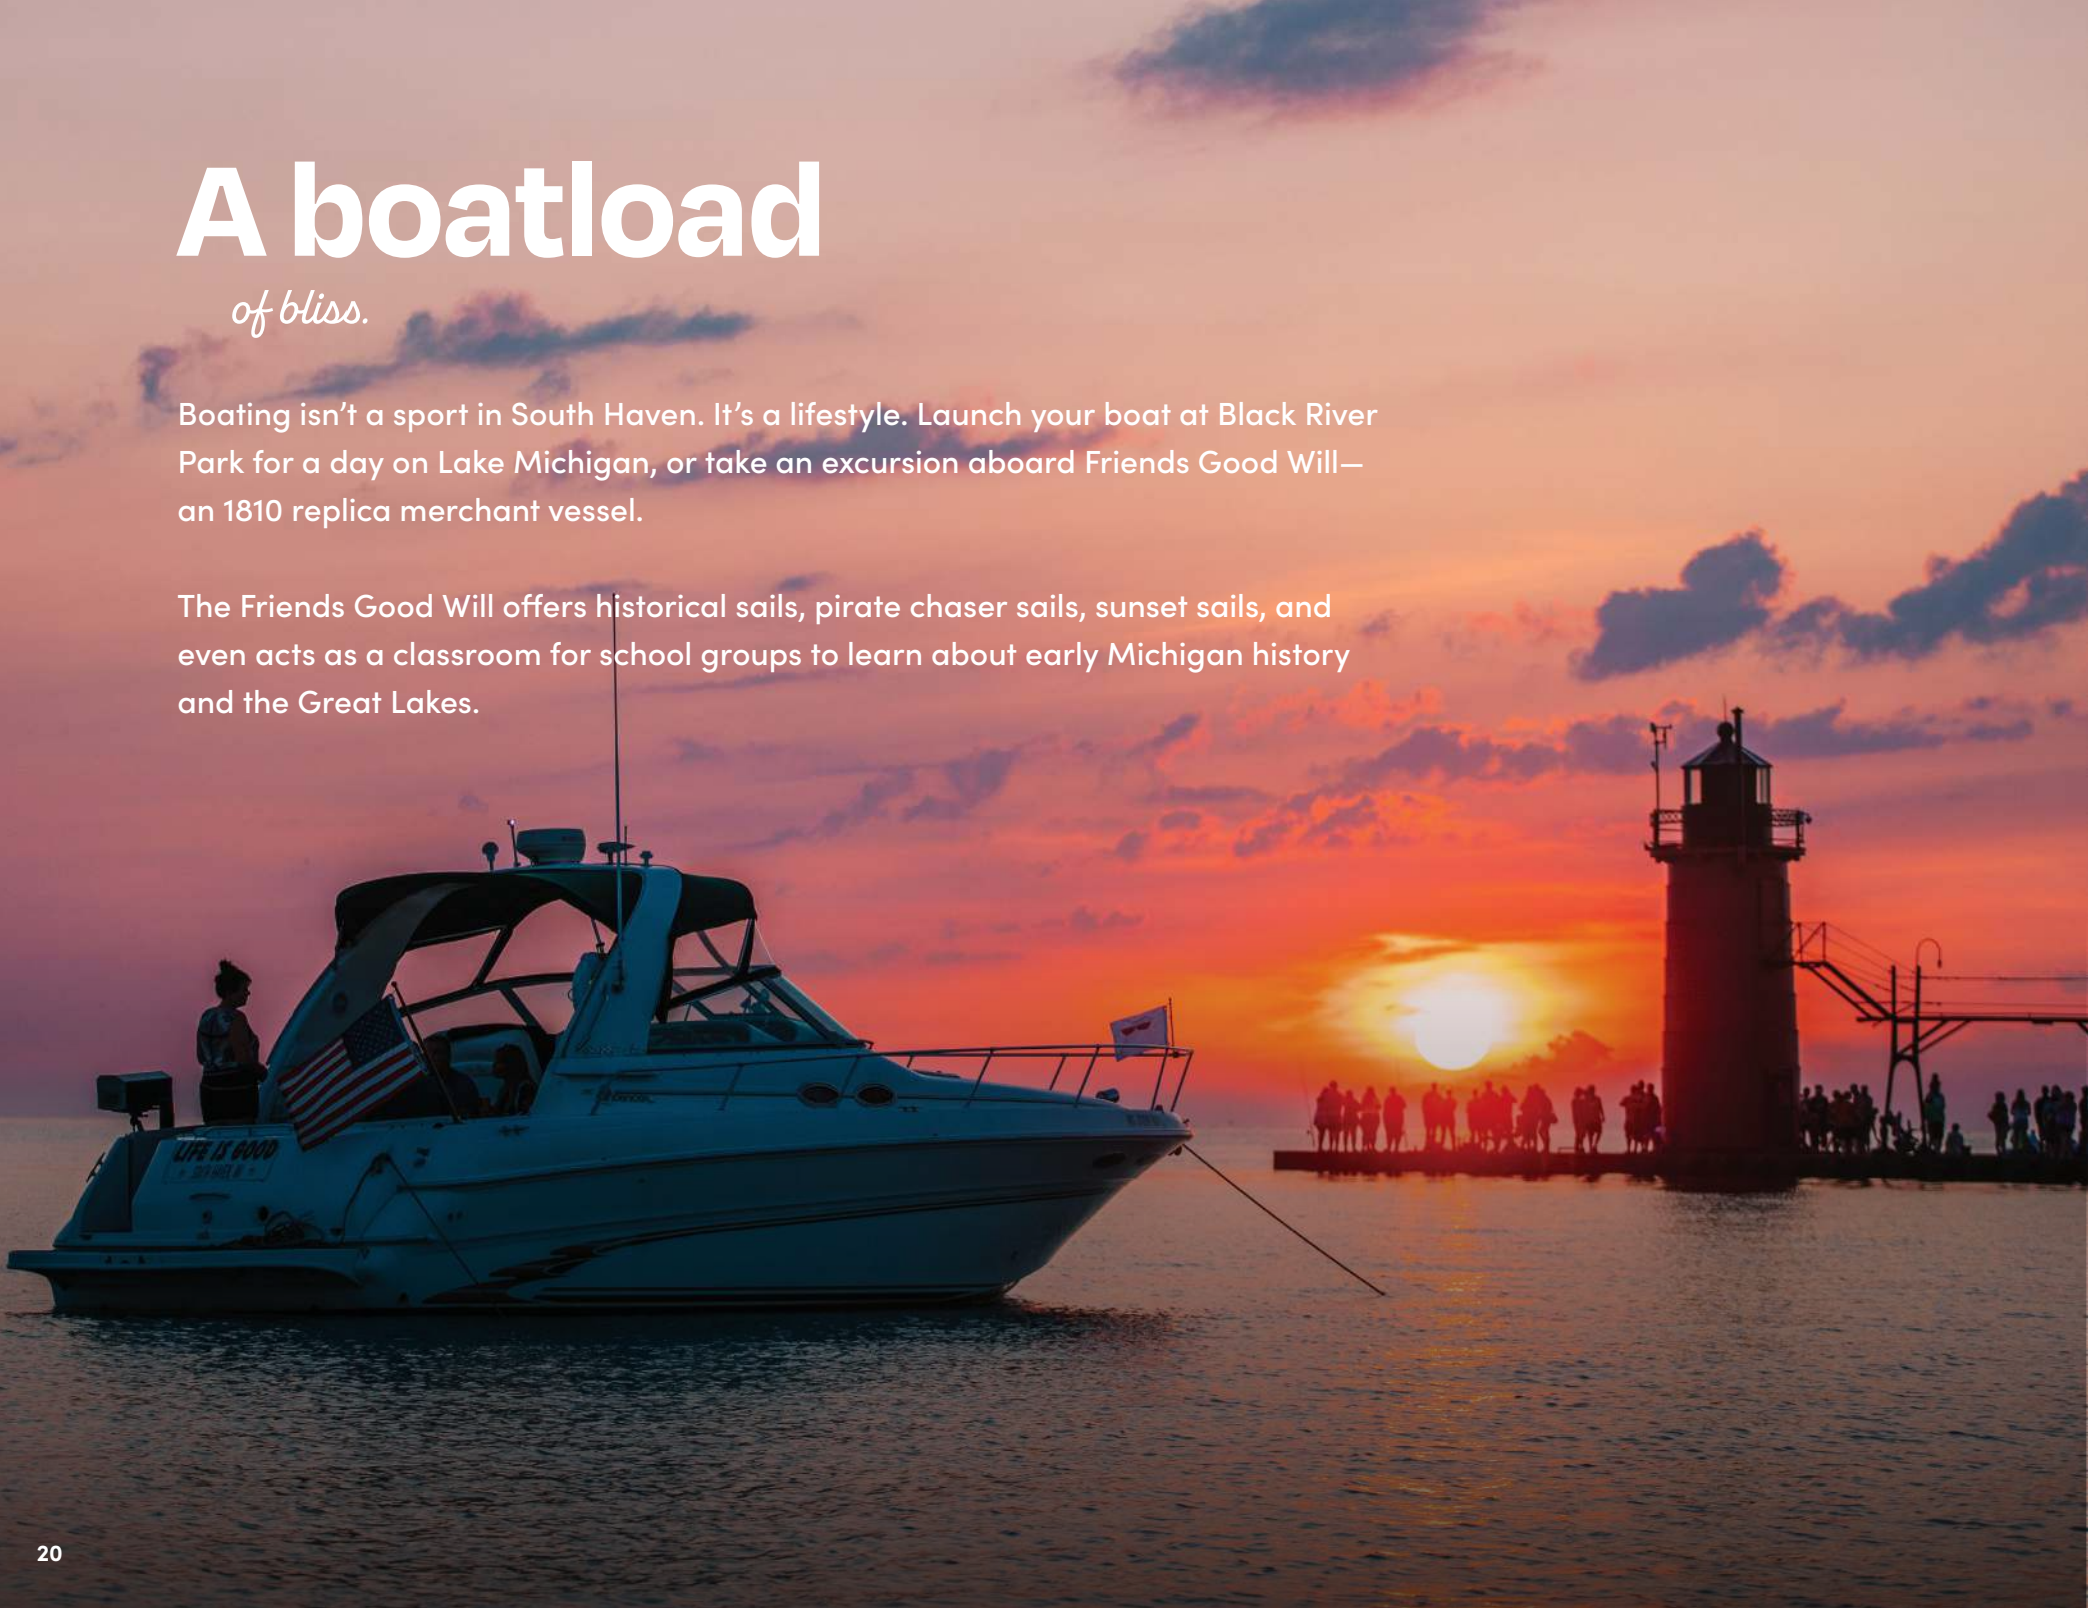

After your excursion, visit Black River Park's modern fish cleaning station—free for the public.

A boatload

of bliss.

Boating isn't a sport in South Haven. It's a lifestyle. Launch your boat at Black River Park for a day on Lake Michigan, or take an excursion aboard Friends Good Will—an 1810 replica merchant vessel.

The Friends Good Will offers historical sails, pirate chaser sails, sunset sails, and even acts as a classroom for school groups to learn about early Michigan history and the Great Lakes.

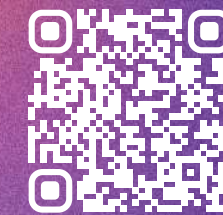

Looking for a more tranquil experience? Set sail on an unforgettable adventure with Fresh Coast Sailing, a private charter that lets you explore Lake Michigan's stunning coastline in style and serenity.

For a little more excitement, take a scenic ride on the Sun Setter, a sail on Margaret Ann, or a white-knuckle ride in Stormin—the “fastest passenger vessel in the Port of South Haven.”

Family boating tip

The Sun Setter allows children of all ages as well as personal coolers and alcoholic beverages.

Cruise The Lake

Tranquility

from every trailhead.

Step into a world where every footstep is a chance to reconnect. South Haven's lush trails invite you to leave the noise behind and find peace beneath the canopy. The steady rustle of leaves, the soft crunch of earth beneath your feet—each moment in the woods is a reminder that nature has its own rhythm, and it's here to soothe your soul.

As a Pure Michigan Trail Town, South Haven boasts 48 miles of hiking and biking trails and 91 miles of water trails, all waiting to be explored.

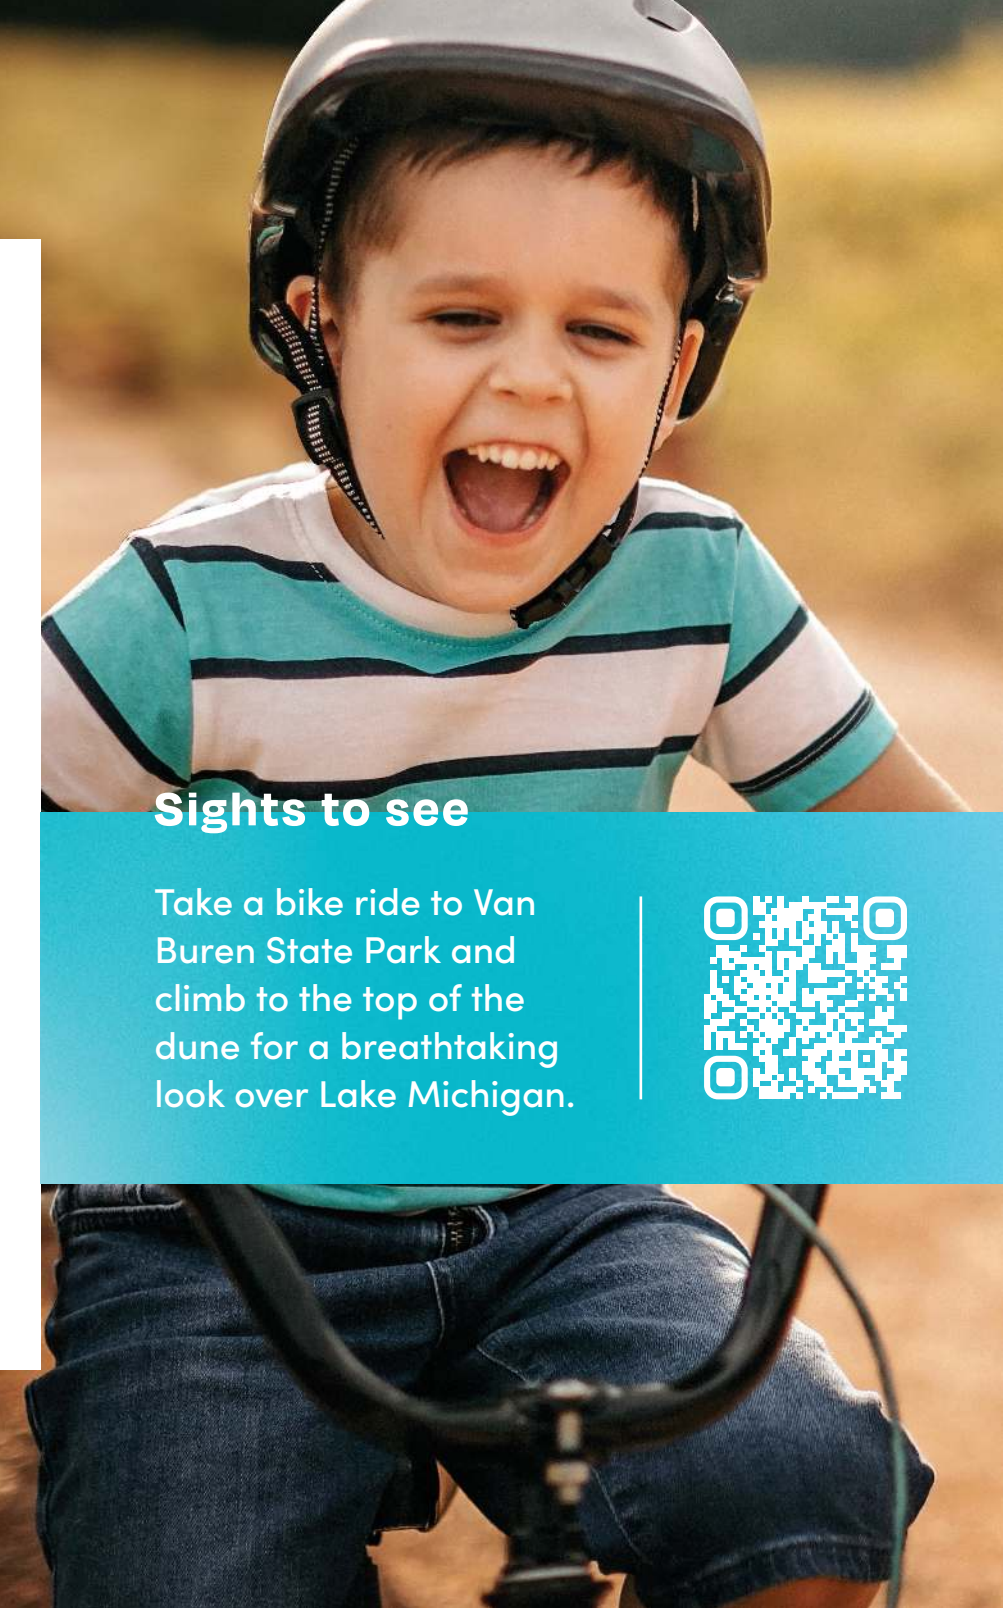

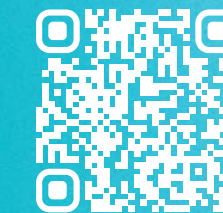

The Kal-Haven Trail travels 33.5 miles to the city of Kalamazoo. Take a relaxing stroll to the bridge and enjoy a beautiful view of the Black River along the way.

The Kal-Haven Trail is also the starting point for the Great Lake-to-Lake Route #1. The Van Buren Trail spans 14 miles to Hartford and has a paved spur that travels 4.5 miles from South Haven to the Van Buren State Park—a nice distance for a family bike ride.

If traveling by water is more your style, explore the Southwest portion of the Lake Michigan Water Trail, float the Bangor to South Haven Heritage Water Trail, or check out other opportunities on the Black River or the nearby Paw Paw River.

Sights to see

Take a bike ride to Van Buren State Park and climb to the top of the dune for a breathtaking look over Lake Michigan.

More adventure

is on the horizon.

Lake Arvesta Farms & Sports Complex

Have some spare time on the agenda? Head to Lake Arvesta Farms and Arvesta Sports Complex—Southwest Michigan’s ultimate outdoor adventure venue. With world-class indoor and outdoor pickleball courts, an 18-hole disc golf course, a 4-lake Aqua Park, plus swimming, kayaking, paddleboarding, and more, there’s something for everyone in the family. And when you’ve worked up an appetite, grab a table at the nearby Fire Water Grill, a full-service restaurant and bar.

Golf

Whether you’re a seasoned pro or a casual player, the peaceful surroundings and scenic views make every round a refreshing retreat for both body and mind.

Still Searching for Adventure

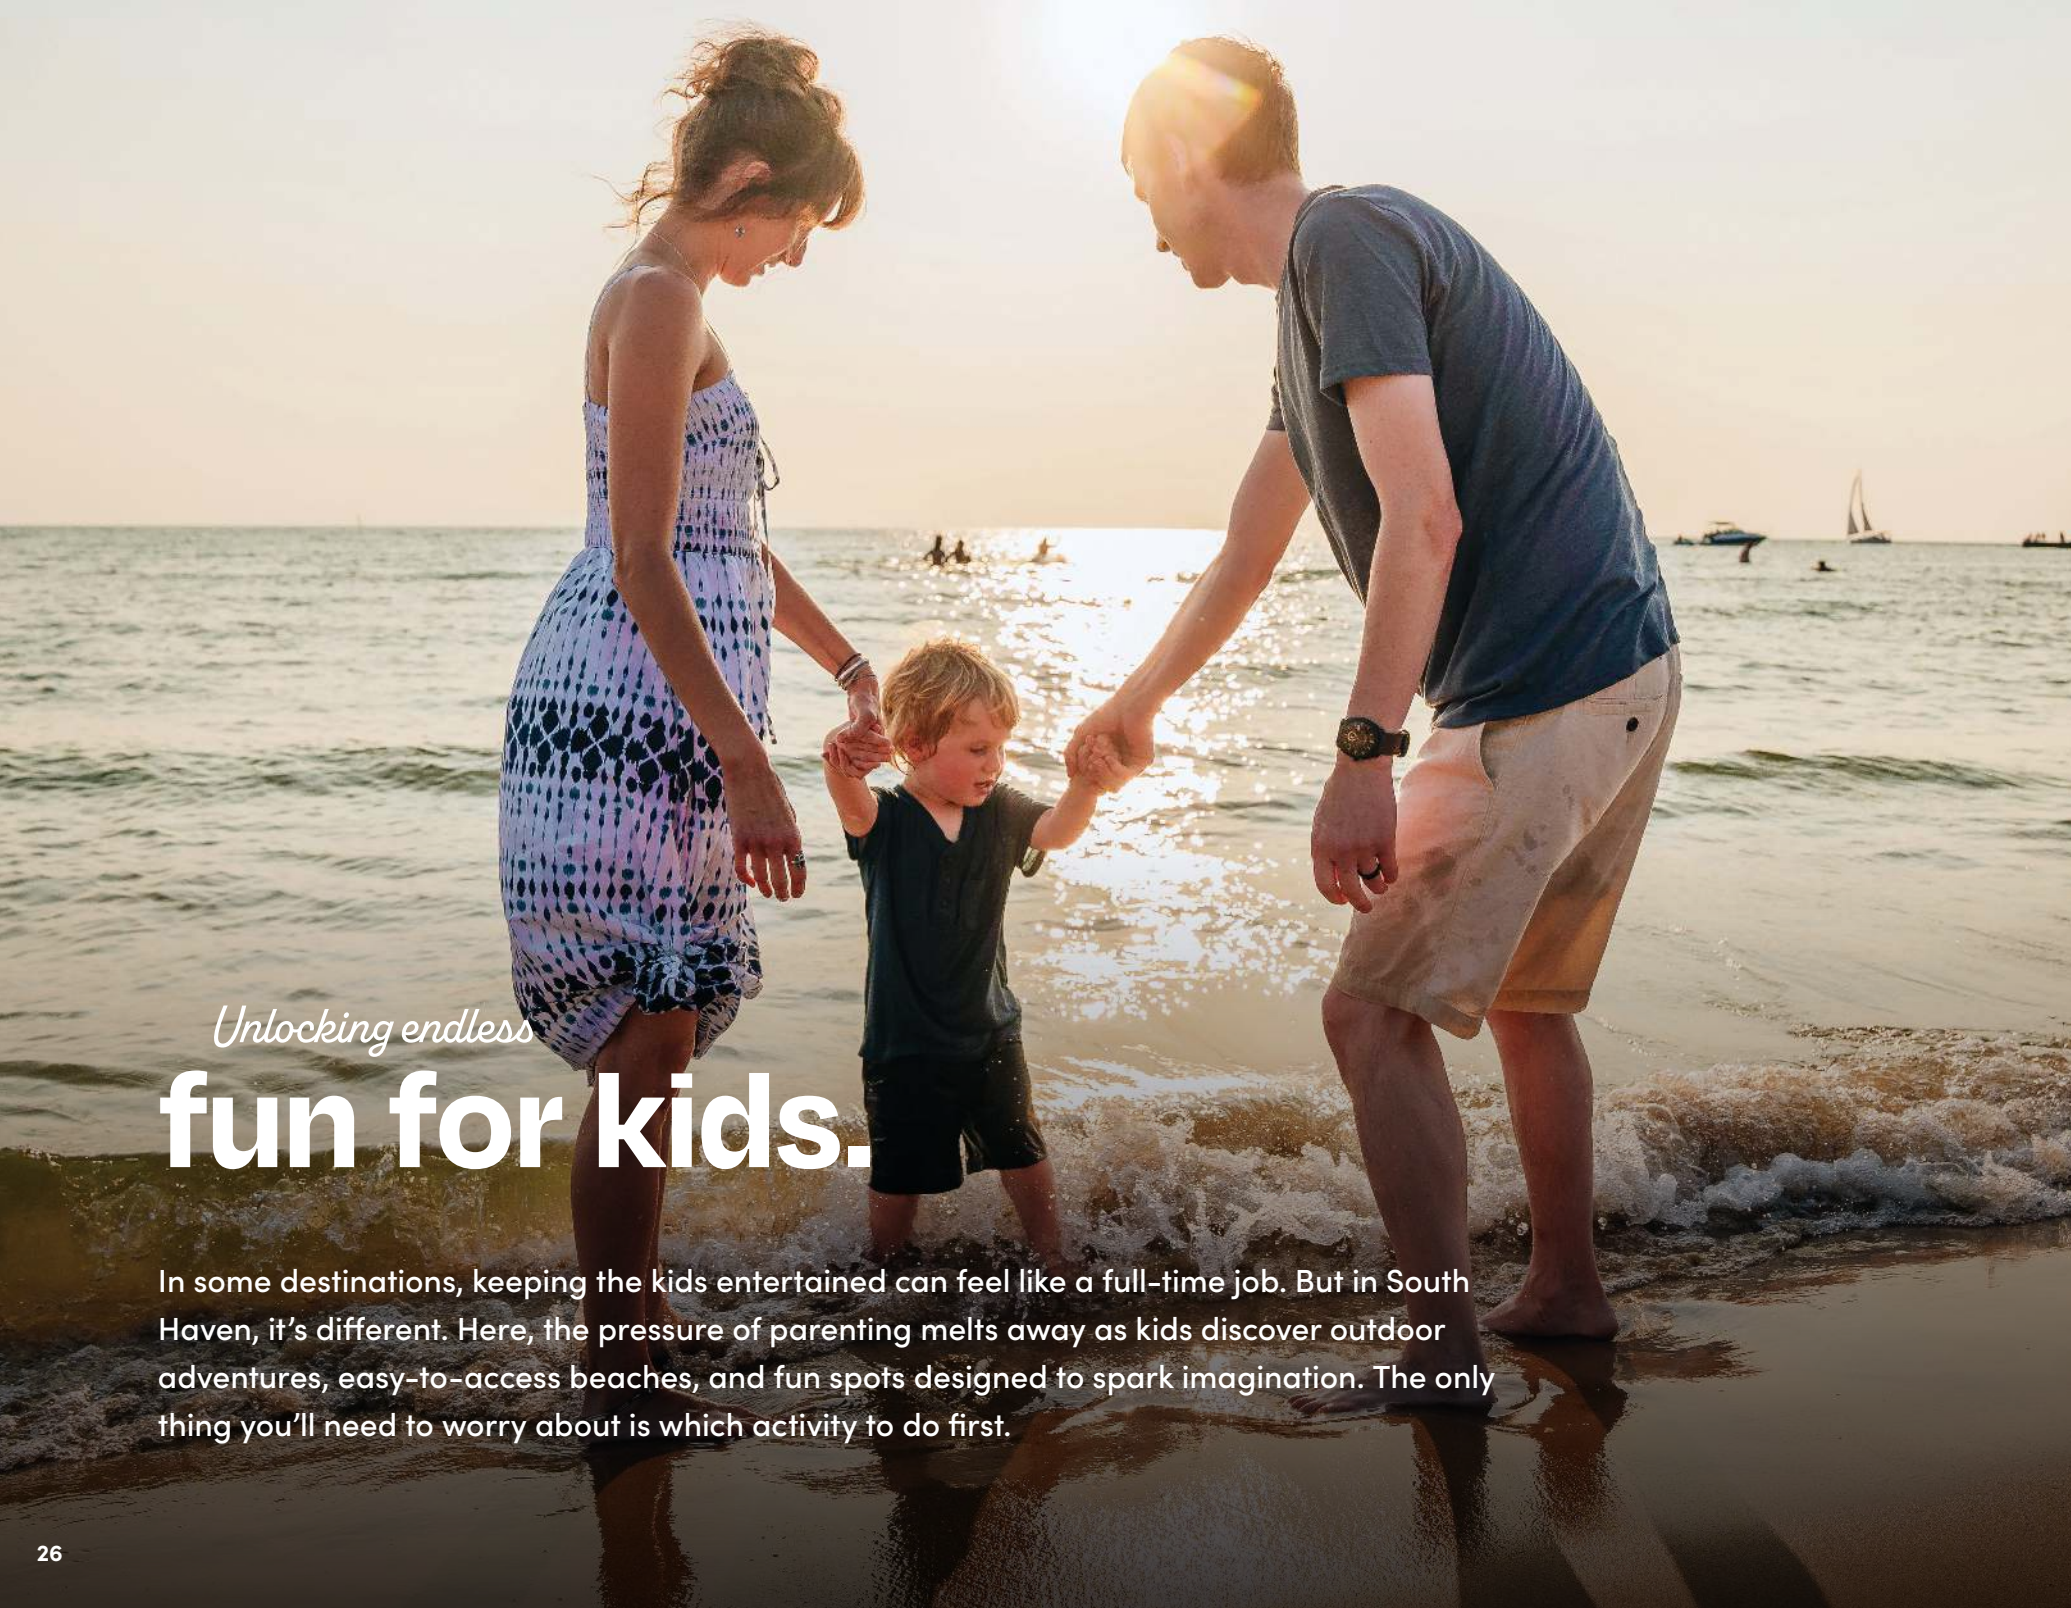

Be a spectator at GingerMan Raceway. Drive your own ATVs at KJC ATV Rentals on their private trails. Go horseback riding at Simpsarosa Stables. Or even try kiteboarding on the coast of Lake Michigan.

Golf for all skill levels

Grab your clubs and head out for a great day of golf at Beeches Golf Club, HawksHead Links, or several other nearby courses.

Unlocking endless fun for kids.

In some destinations, keeping the kids entertained can feel like a full-time job. But in South Haven, it's different. Here, the pressure of parenting melts away as kids discover outdoor adventures, easy-to-access beaches, and fun spots designed to spark imagination. The only thing you'll need to worry about is which activity to do first.

Let imaginations run wild at the Friends Good Will Splash Pad, or head downtown for ice cream and explore charming shops with toys, books, and children's clothing.

When the sun sets or the weather shifts, keep the fun going at the old-fashioned movie theater, Rocket Arcade, or the bowling alley. Don't miss the Mitten Children's Museum, filled with Michigan-themed exhibits and hands-on activities to inspire young minds.

Remodeled and ready for fun

Don't miss the recently remodeled Kids Corner Park, which overlooks Lake Michigan near the notorious "Blue Stairs" that lead to the beach.

Top Spots

A downtown where time stands still.

Our downtown is lined with boutique stores, locally owned coffee shops, and other small businesses, many of which remain unchanged by time—a charming reminder of a bygone era.

Whether you're looking for board games and beach toys for your week-long stay, fashionable clothing for hitting the town, or antique finds to bring back home South Haven's downtown is worth buying into.

Free on a Wednesday or Saturday?
Located downtown at the Huron Street Pavilion, the South Haven Farm Market features local farmers and artisans. Choose from a fresh selection of produce, meats, eggs, and baked goods, plus handmade crafts.

Options

A bite at the beach.

For a day at the beach, order deli sandwiches from North Side Memories or the Depot, or swing by one of the many concessions stands at North and South Beach for a snack or sweet treat.

Need a coffee?

You don't have to look far. South Haven has a robust selection of locally owned coffee shops, downtown and all around.

Even the drinks taste better here.

Whether you're a wine connoisseur, craft beer aficionado, or cider enthusiast, Southwest Michigan offers a rich selection of award-winning beverages that are sure to delight. South Haven is home to several tasting rooms right downtown, where you can sample local libations that capture the essence of the region.

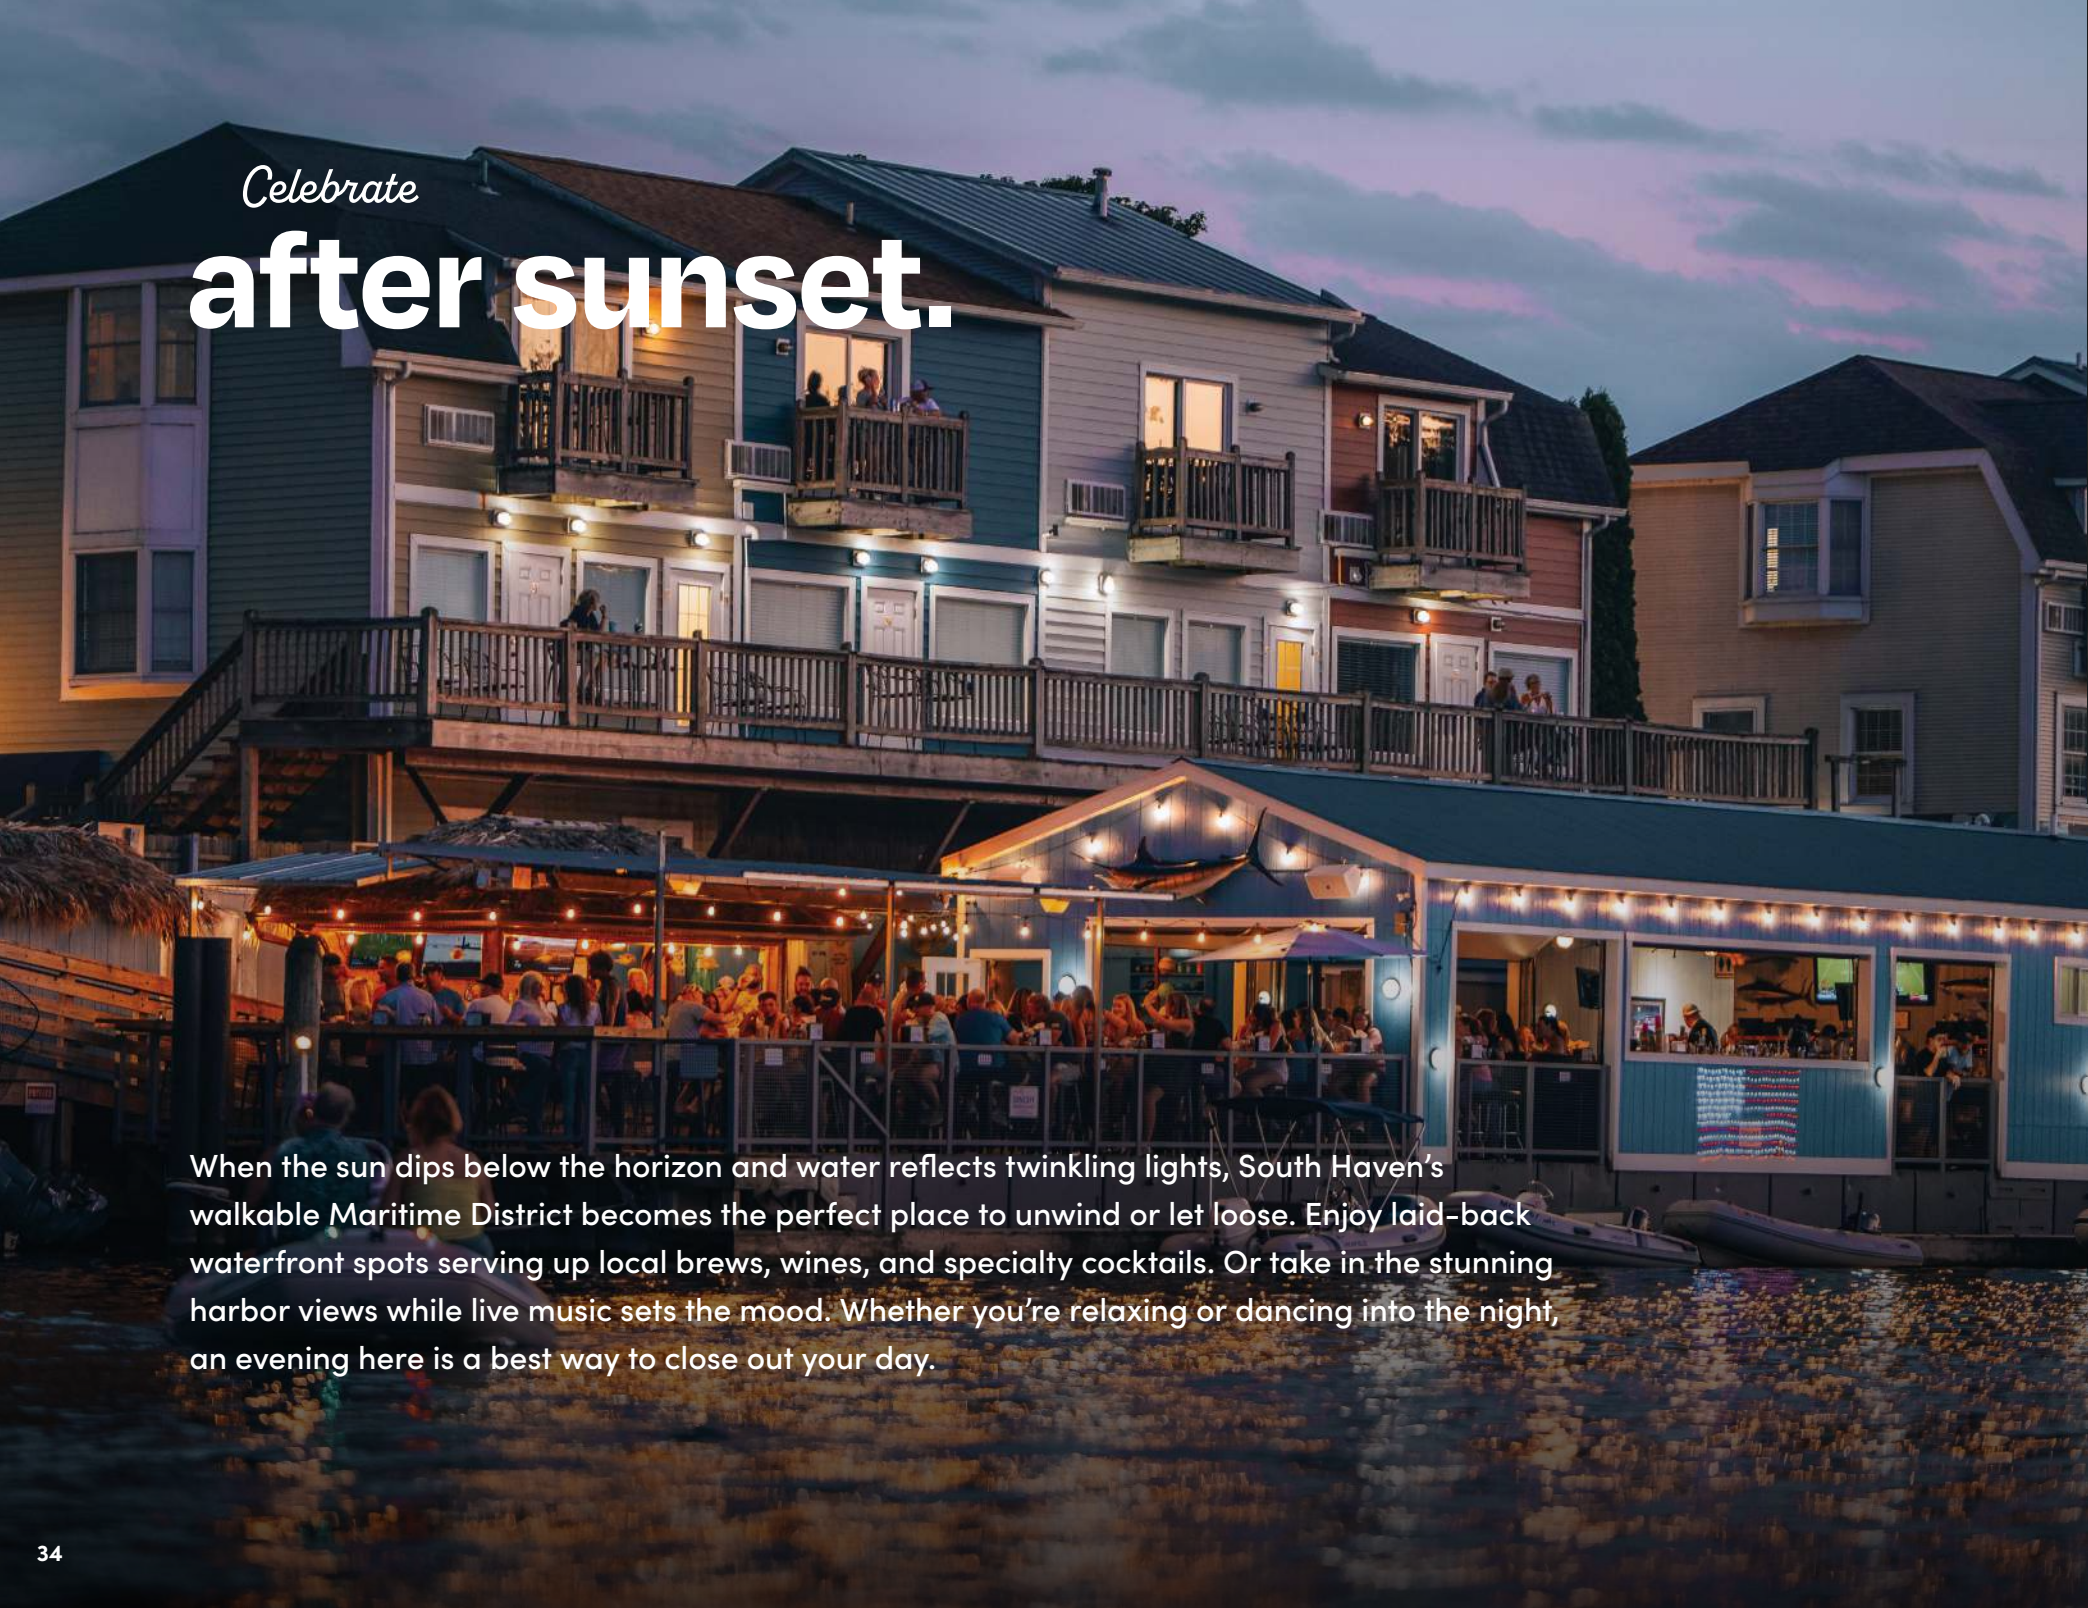

Want to sit back and truly soak it in? Let Moveportz Transportation Services take the wheel for a carefree wine and brewery tour. All you have to do is sip and savor the moment.

Did you know

Paw Paw's St. Julian Winery and Distillery is the most award-winning winery in the state of Michigan.

Celebrate
after sunset.

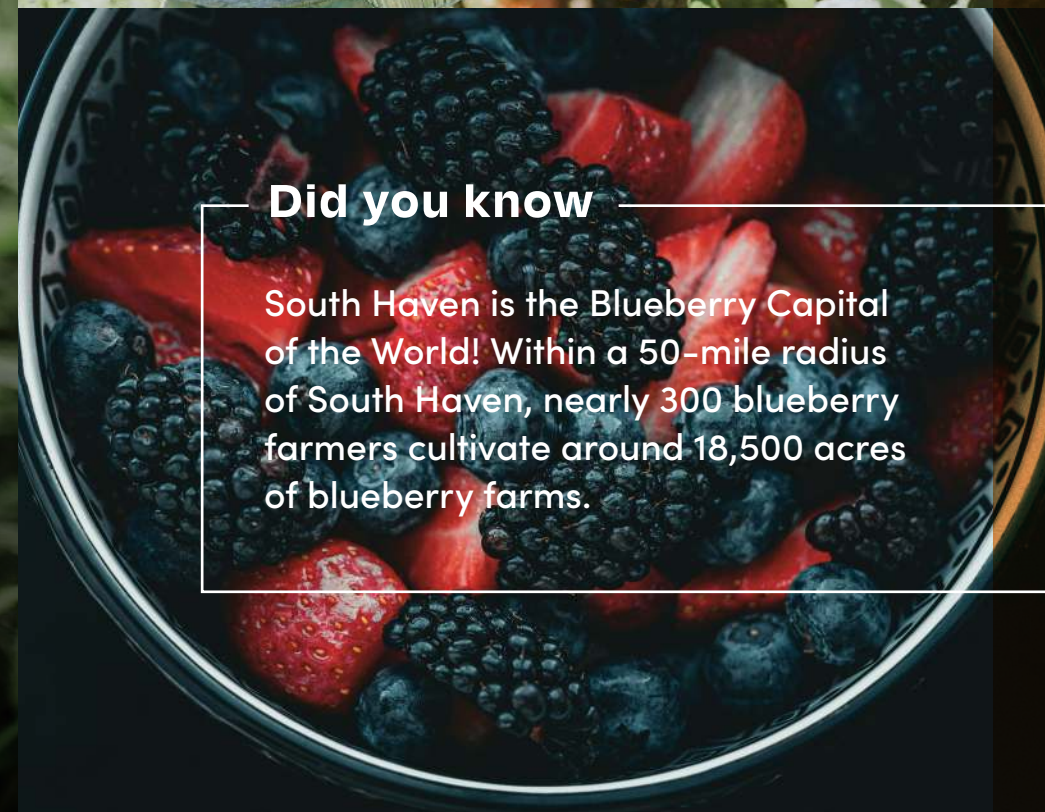

When the sun dips below the horizon and water reflects twinkling lights, South Haven's walkable Maritime District becomes the perfect place to unwind or let loose. Enjoy laid-back waterfront spots serving up local brews, wines, and specialty cocktails. Or take in the stunning harbor views while live music sets the mood. Whether you're relaxing or dancing into the night, an evening here is a best way to close out your day.

All is ripe with the world.

South Haven is part of Michigan's fruit belt, and generations have delighted in the area's variety of fruits. There are plentiful U-Pick opportunities for raspberries, strawberries, apples, peaches, pears, and the region's celebrated crop.

Whether you're filling your basket or enjoying a sweet snack right off the vine, every visit is a taste of the land's natural bounty, ripe for the picking and ready to savor.

Did you know

South Haven is the Blueberry Capital of the World! Within a 50-mile radius of South Haven, nearly 300 blueberry farmers cultivate around 18,500 acres of blueberry farms.

A bounty of events:

The Farm Market

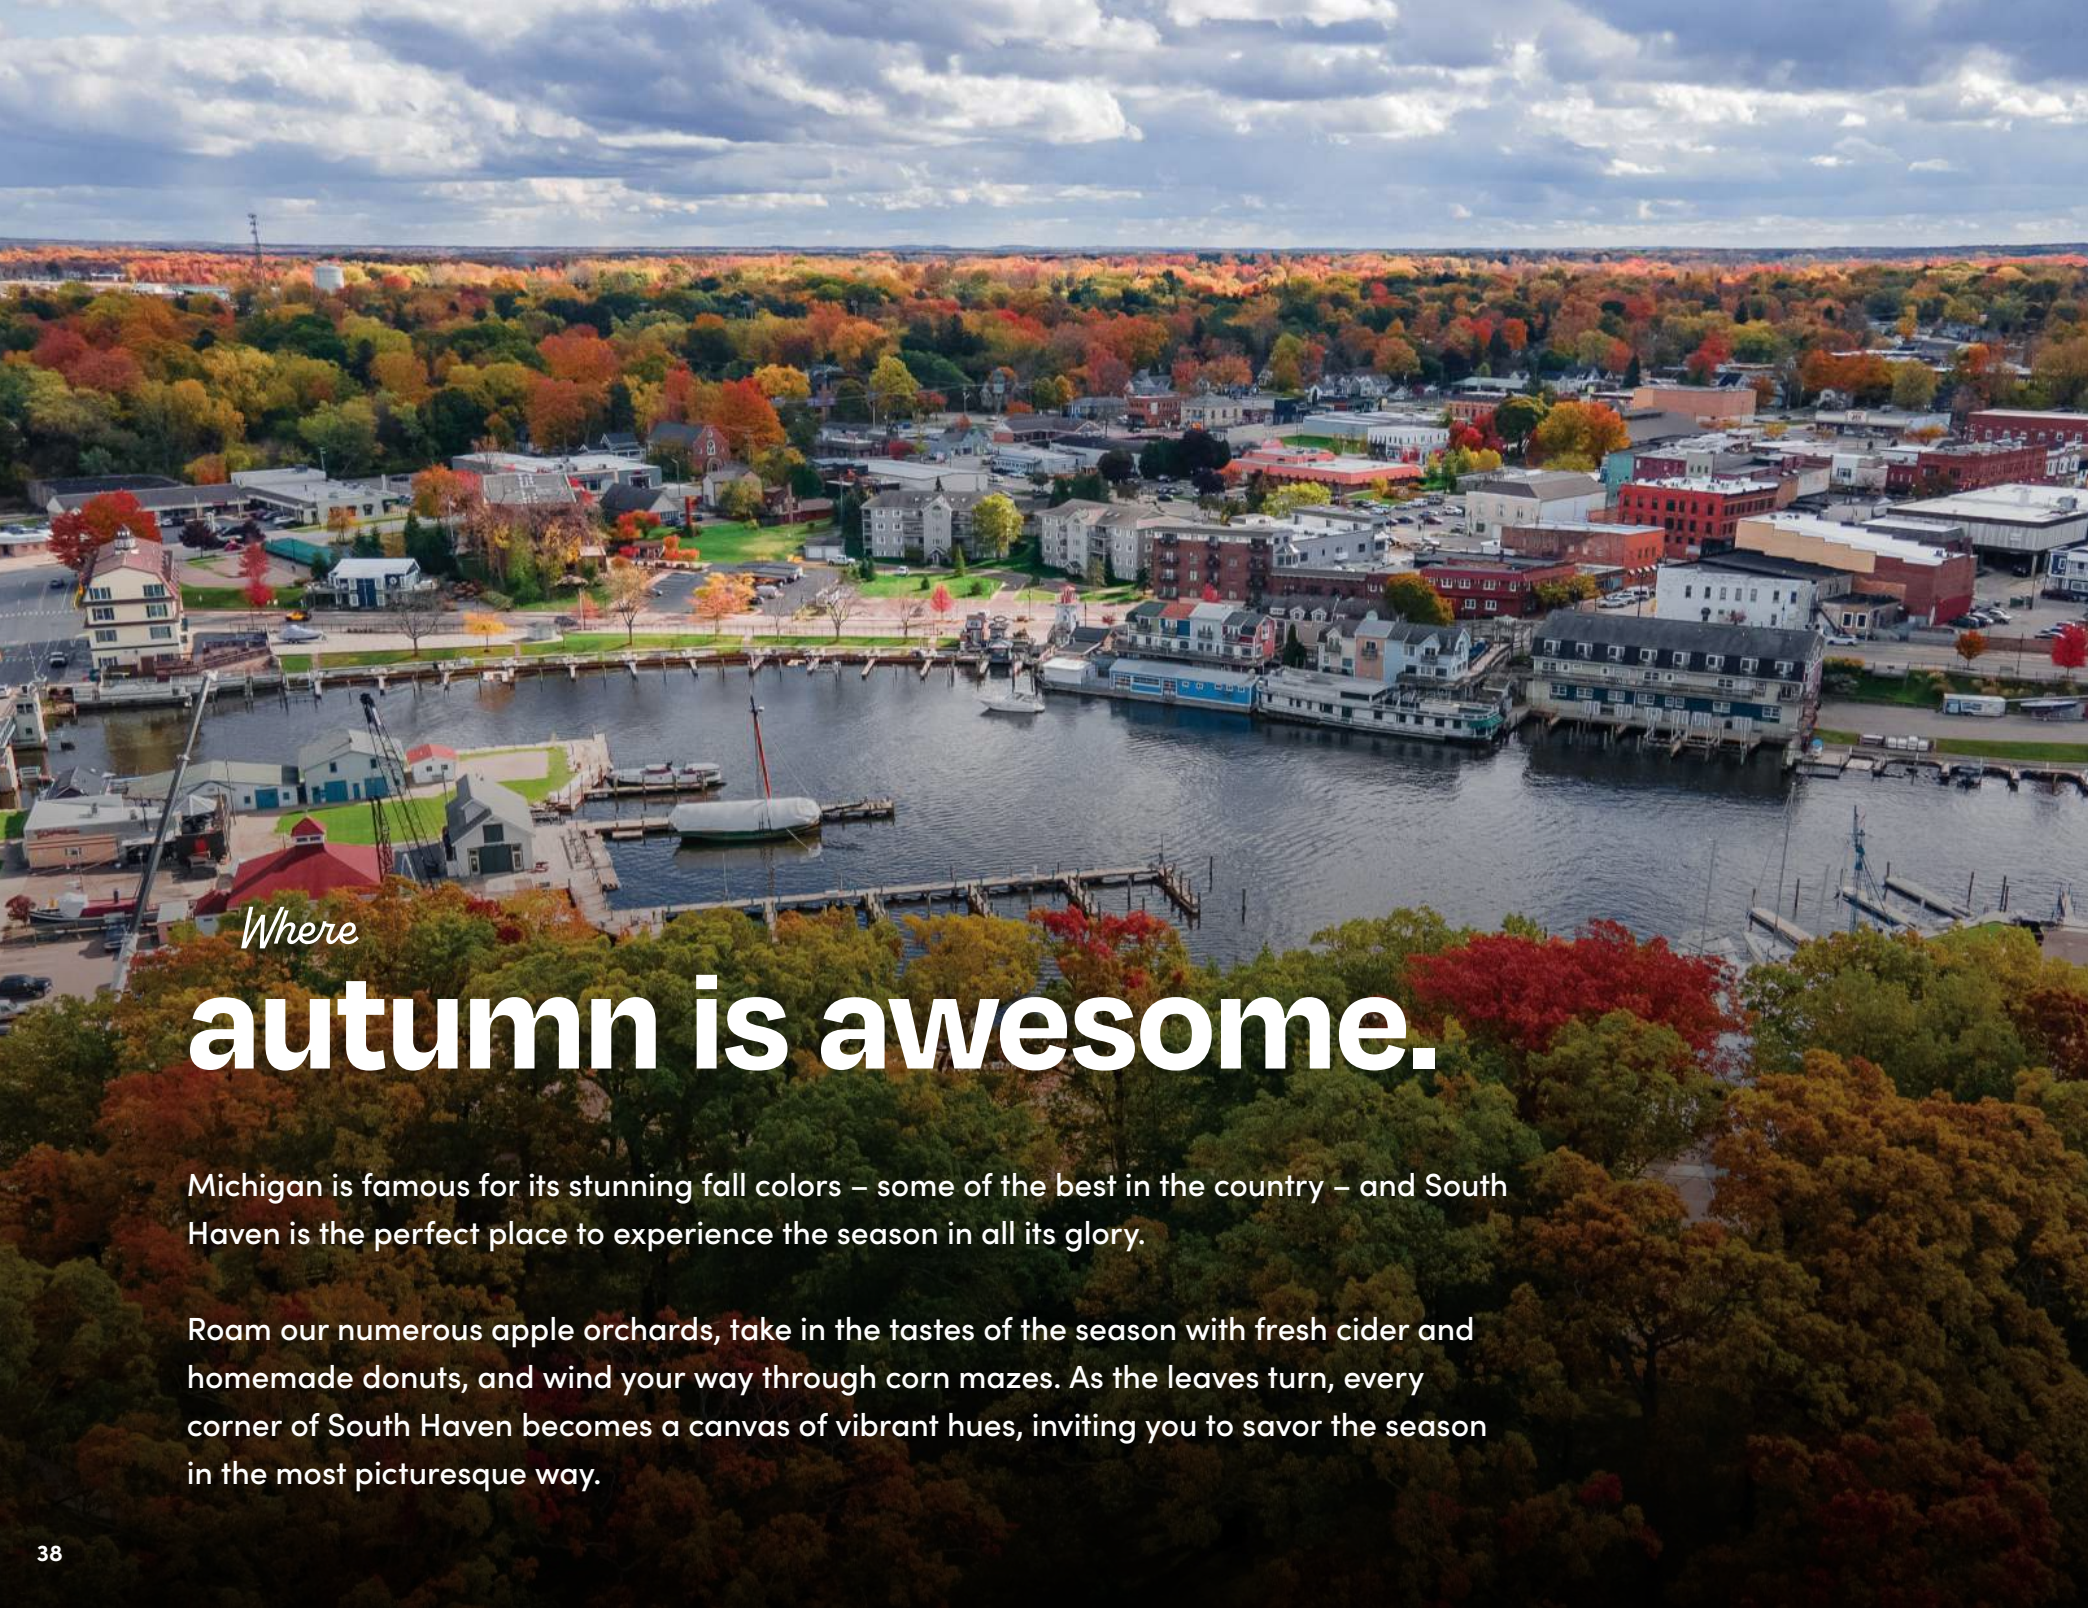

The Farm Market is held at the Huron Street Pavilion every Wednesday and Saturday from Memorial Day through Labor Day and continues Saturdays until October. Stop by for a variety of fresh fruits and vegetables, plus a huge selection of artisan cheeses, homemade bread, flowers, crafts, and more.

National Blueberry Festival

In August, our National Blueberry Festival is the most popular event in South Haven and hosts many fun blueberry-themed activities, including the blueberry pie-eating contest, pageant, parade, live music, and more. The festival is always held during the second weekend of August, so mark your calendars!

U-Pick

A local favorite, DeGrandchamp Farms is your stop for u-pick and readily available fresh blueberries in the summer and cranberries in the fall. Their cranberry bog is a unique feature of our area, hosting an annual Cranberry Harvest Day in October. And if you've got a taste for apples, come in September and choose from one of our many local orchards.

Where
autumn is awesome.

Michigan is famous for its stunning fall colors – some of the best in the country – and South Haven is the perfect place to experience the season in all its glory.

Roam our numerous apple orchards, take in the tastes of the season with fresh cider and homemade donuts, and wind your way through corn mazes. As the leaves turn, every corner of South Haven becomes a canvas of vibrant hues, inviting you to savor the season in the most picturesque way.

Savor the seasons

While summer is where South Haven shines, autumn and winter offer a calm escape.

Step into our winter wonderland.

Every winter, colder adventures await in South Haven. Visit our iconic ice-covered lighthouse, skate at our outdoor rink, cross-country ski or snowshoe at the Van Buren State Park, or even snowmobile along the Kal-Haven Trail. Afterwards, warm up at one of our cozy cafes and restaurants or catch a movie at our historic Michigan Theatre.

The perfect place to say
"I do."

For countless couples looking for a wedding destination, South Haven was love at first sight. Whether it's the soft sands of our picturesque beaches, the vibrant energy of our buzzing city, or the rolling beauty of our scenic countryside, every setting offers something unforgettable.

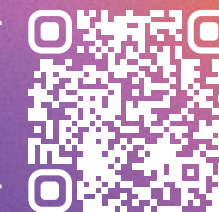

For intimate celebrations, our locally owned bed and breakfasts provide the perfect blend of charm and warmth. Cozy, elegant, and filled with personal touches, these venues make every moment feel special—for you and your guests.
